ANNE FITCH SPEAKS TO ROCHESTER CLUB

Mrs. Anne Fitch, director of Civil Defense in the New Bedford area, was guest speaker at the April meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club. The program was arranged by Douglas Church, Civil Defense Director for the town of Rochester.

Mrs. Fitch explained that a civil defense program was needed for emergencies other than war and that New Bedford facilities were available to outlying towns upon request at such times. She told of simple shelters for the home owner and said that a cellar with thick cement walls and tightly closed windows would serve. The danger of fall out lasts about two weeks and the householder should have an adequate supply of canned goods and eight or nine jugs of water. Water may be used from the tank in the cellar also. Mrs. Fitch was introduced by Julian Weigel, Sr., Deputy Director for Rochester.

Harold Gay, assistant principal at Old Rochester Regional High School, was present and presented a placque to the club in recognition of their gift last year to the Citizen's Scholarship Fund at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

Mrs. Ethel Gary presided at the business meeting. Plans were made to have a giant whist party at the clubhouse on May 9th to benefit the Citizen's Scholarship Fund. Mrs. George Church and Mrs. Edgar Martin are co-chairmen and will choose their committee.

New members accepted into the club at this meeting were Mmes. Nancy Douglas, Muriel Bassett, Marion Wood, Helen Butts, Carol Vaughan, Martha Gifford, Anna White and Patricia Jenney. An application for membership was received from Mrs. Dorothy Buckman of Marion.

A report from the nominating committee stated that all present officers had agreed to serve for another year. Election of officers will be held at the annual dinner meeting on May 6. Mrs. Gary is in charge of arrangements.

Names were taken of volunteers who will contribute cakes and pastries for the Tobey Hospital Snack Bar during the week of April 11 through the 15th.

An invitation was read from the Wareham Monday Club inviting Rochester Club members and their husbands to attend Guest Night on Monday evening, April 6th.

A thank you note was read from Mrs. Einar Evenson of the Wareham Historical Society in appreciation of the donation sent to them by the Rochester Woman's Club. Mrs. Evenson presented a program for club members in Rochester at the March meeting.

Mrs. Gary announced that club directors would meet Tuesday evening, April 7, at the club house to discuss scholarship plans, revised by-laws and other items of business.

A coffee hour followed and delicious refreshments served from an attractively appointed table by Mmes. David Fearing, Milton Heuberger, L. Rodman Doane and Kenneth Winslow, hostesses for the evening.

OR SENIOR WINS TROPHY

Among the many greater New Bedford area trophy winners at the Seventh Annual New England Area YMCA Gymnastic Championships held at Springfield College on Saturday, April 4th, was Old Rochester senior Robert Mandell. Mandell, a member of New Bedford YMCA gym coach Albert Sylvia's Senior Gymnastic Team, was awarded third place trophy for overall performance in the Men's Novice Class, and third place trophy for performance on the Still Rings. The award for overall performance is based upon competition in all of the six Olympic gymnastic events.

GOP MEETS IN ROCHESTER

Rochester members of the Republican Party met Sunday afternoon at the Rochester Town Hall with Paul Gibbs presiding. Tentative plans were made to have a Candidates' Night at the Old Rochester Regional High School with the Republican Committees of the towns of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester in charge of arrangements. Serving on a planning committee with Mr. Gibbs from Rochester are Greenwood Hartley, Jr. and Mrs. Henry B. Smith.

SCHOOL BANDS GIVE CONCERT

The school band from Yarmouth, Maine appeared as performing guests of the Old Rochester Regional High School over the weekend. The band made the trip by bus, arrived on Friday, and members stayed with families in the three towns.

Saturday night, the two bands performed singly and together on the Old Rochester Regional stage. The program appeared to be ambitious for them and they did a commendable job as they accepted the challenge. The Yarmouth group led off the performance under the direction of Eugene E. Pacquin. The O. R. Regional Girls Glee Club sang under the direction of Zavan Mazmanian. He then directed the O. R. band in their selections. The two bands combined to wind up the evening. Highlight was the rendition of "In a Persian Market" by the combined group. They obviously enjoyed playing this melodic piece and it gave them a chance to show their skill in a most enjoyable way.

The Yarmouth band toured points of interest on Saturday afternoon. They visited the New Bedford Harbor Dike site and traveled into the coffer dams. They also toured the New Bedford Whaling Museum. They left for Yarmouth at 1:30 on Sunday afternoon.

A copy of the Resolutions were sent to the family of Mrs. Hamlin and a copy will be spread upon the records of the Grange.

The chairman for the coming annual Fair, Otto Kellish, with Leonard Randall, co-chairman, held a discussion of Fair plans. Also some of the booth chairmen were appointed.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Thursday, April 23rd, from 12:30 to 4 P.M. in the Grange Hall. Proceeds will benefit the Grange treasury. Also, plans were made for the young folks of the Subordinate Grange to have a supper with Barry Denham, chairman.

Sandwiches and punch were served by members of the Grange.

The next meeting, April 16th, the lecturer's program will be a fashion show put on by Sandy Cattley of the Boutique. Her girls will model the new Spring styles and she will be the commentator for the show.

SALUTE TO MACARTHUR

Every age has its great men. Once in a while a giant appears. Douglas MacArthur was among our greatest. His father won the Congressional Medal of Honor as the "boy cornell" of the Civil War. Inspired by the example of his father, he followed the same path. His career sets an example of honor, courage and service that ranks second to none. He fought three wars. It is singular that his military genius, great as it was, was overshadowed by his contribution to peace. The administration of the defeated nation of Japan after World War II won this country its most important ally. The strong free enterprise system, the Republican system of government of Japan is an example to the world. The strength of Japan, forged by the administration of Douglas MacArthur, has proved to be the balance of power in Asia. Without this bastion in that part of the world, our situation would be greatly and gravely altered. Never before in history has a defeated nation been so wisely and successfully led.

After he was relieved from his command in Korea for demanding the right to fight for victory, General MacArthur retired and predicted that he would just "fade away". Nothing could have been further from the fact. He utilized his wisdom and experience in civilian life to an advanced age. Even his last battle for life was gallantly fought. He never faded in his life.

Neither will his example. DCJ

Mrs. Clarence Perry, past president of the club, served as assistant director with Mrs. George T. Walker. Mrs. Perry is also president of the Marion Corsage Club and her Marion group made all the corsages.

SCHOOL NURSE HONORED AT RECEPTION

Many townspeople turned out to pay tribute to a retiring school nurse at a farewell reception held in her honor at Rochester Memorial School. After serving nineteen years in the Rochester school system, Mrs. Madeline Baker said good-bye to Rochester residents, many of whose health in their schooldays as well as that of their children has been her main function.

Mrs. Baker was escorted and presented to the townspeople attending by Harold Gay, who is vice-principal at Old Rochester Regional High School and former principal of Memorial School. Mr. Gay also introduced Douglas Church, chairman of the Rochester School Committee. Mr. Church read a letter signed by the president of the school committee which contained a resolution in tribute to Mrs. Baker for her role as school nurse in Rochester and for the "physical well being she contributed to the town".

Special guests introduced by Mr. Gay included Miss Sue Pitman, Mrs. Baker's sister; William Keavy, principal of Memorial School and Mrs. Keavy; Joseph C. Kunces, superintendent of schools; C. Condict Peirce and Robert Hiller, members of the school committee. Also introduced were representatives of the three Rochester organizations sponsoring the reception which included Mrs. Carol Vaughan, vice-president of the Parent-Teachers Association, in the absence of Mrs. Madeline Arruda, president; Mrs. Ethel Gary, president of the Woman's Club; and Miss Lucile Ouellette who represented the Grange in the absence of Thomas Gayoski, Grange master.

A program was presented by the Memorial School Boys' Choir under the direction of Mrs. Rhona Blasdale, school music supervisor. Selections sung by the 27 member choir included two patriotic songs, a Hungarian folk song and an island spiritual. Pianist was Mrs. Calvin Coggeshall.

In presenting a gift to the guest of honor on behalf of the PTA, Woman's Club and Grange, Mr. Gay said that Mrs. Baker "has been more than a school nurse to us. She has helped families in need and has worked for such charities as the Salvation Army and Red Cross and has always been willing to serve." He added "above all she has been a friend to us all." He concluded by reading a poem in tribute to Mrs. Baker which he had written entitled "Mrs. Baker was There". The retiring nurse was presented with a large floral arrangement, a gift from Gibbs Bray.

Mrs. Baker was graduated from Flower Hospital in New York City and served as visiting nurse in Middleboro from 1924-1929. Completing her education at New York University, she was involved in Public Health work at Tarrytown, New York. After serving in Public Health in Maine, she began her work as school nurse in the Rochester school system in 1945 and has served in that capacity until her present retirement.

Chairman for the reception was Mrs. Arruda, assisted by Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Ainsley White, Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Jr., Mrs. Irving Ellis, Mrs. Gary and Miss Ouellette.

Refreshments were served from a table set with silver tea and coffee services and a large floral arrangement centerpiece. Assisting the committee were Mrs. Alberta King and Mrs. E. Wright.
